

University of Paris Nanterre – Greening in Higher Education

Monday 18th october
2021

 Université
Paris Nanterre

University of Paris Nanterre

A committed University

- Located near Paris
- 34000 students
- 1200 professors and researchers
- All disciplines of social and human sciences
- Engineering and computer science

A pioneer University

- A Vice President for Ecological Transition and Campus Planning
- First service in France dedicated to social responsibility and sustainable development (RSU-DD)
- 3 hubs (science and society, solidarity and commitment, ecological transition)
- 2 labels in Greening (DDRS and Eco-jardin)

Science and society hub

- Sharing knowledge
- Diversifying university audience
- Making university a dynamic player
- The University of Permanent Culture
- Scientific events for general public

Solidarity and commitment hub

- Migration crisis
- Promote student commitment
- A university-wide response to social issues
- A fulfilling environment
- Welcoming vulnerable groups
- Solidarity grocery store
- Civic service volunteers
- Solidarity and committed activities

Ecological transition hub

—

- Eco-campus in an eco-territory
- 4 main themes (local biodiversity, waste management and recycling, water quality and mobility)
- Raising awareness of sustainable development
- Make the campus a good ecological model
- Better ecological management of green spaces

2 Labels

—

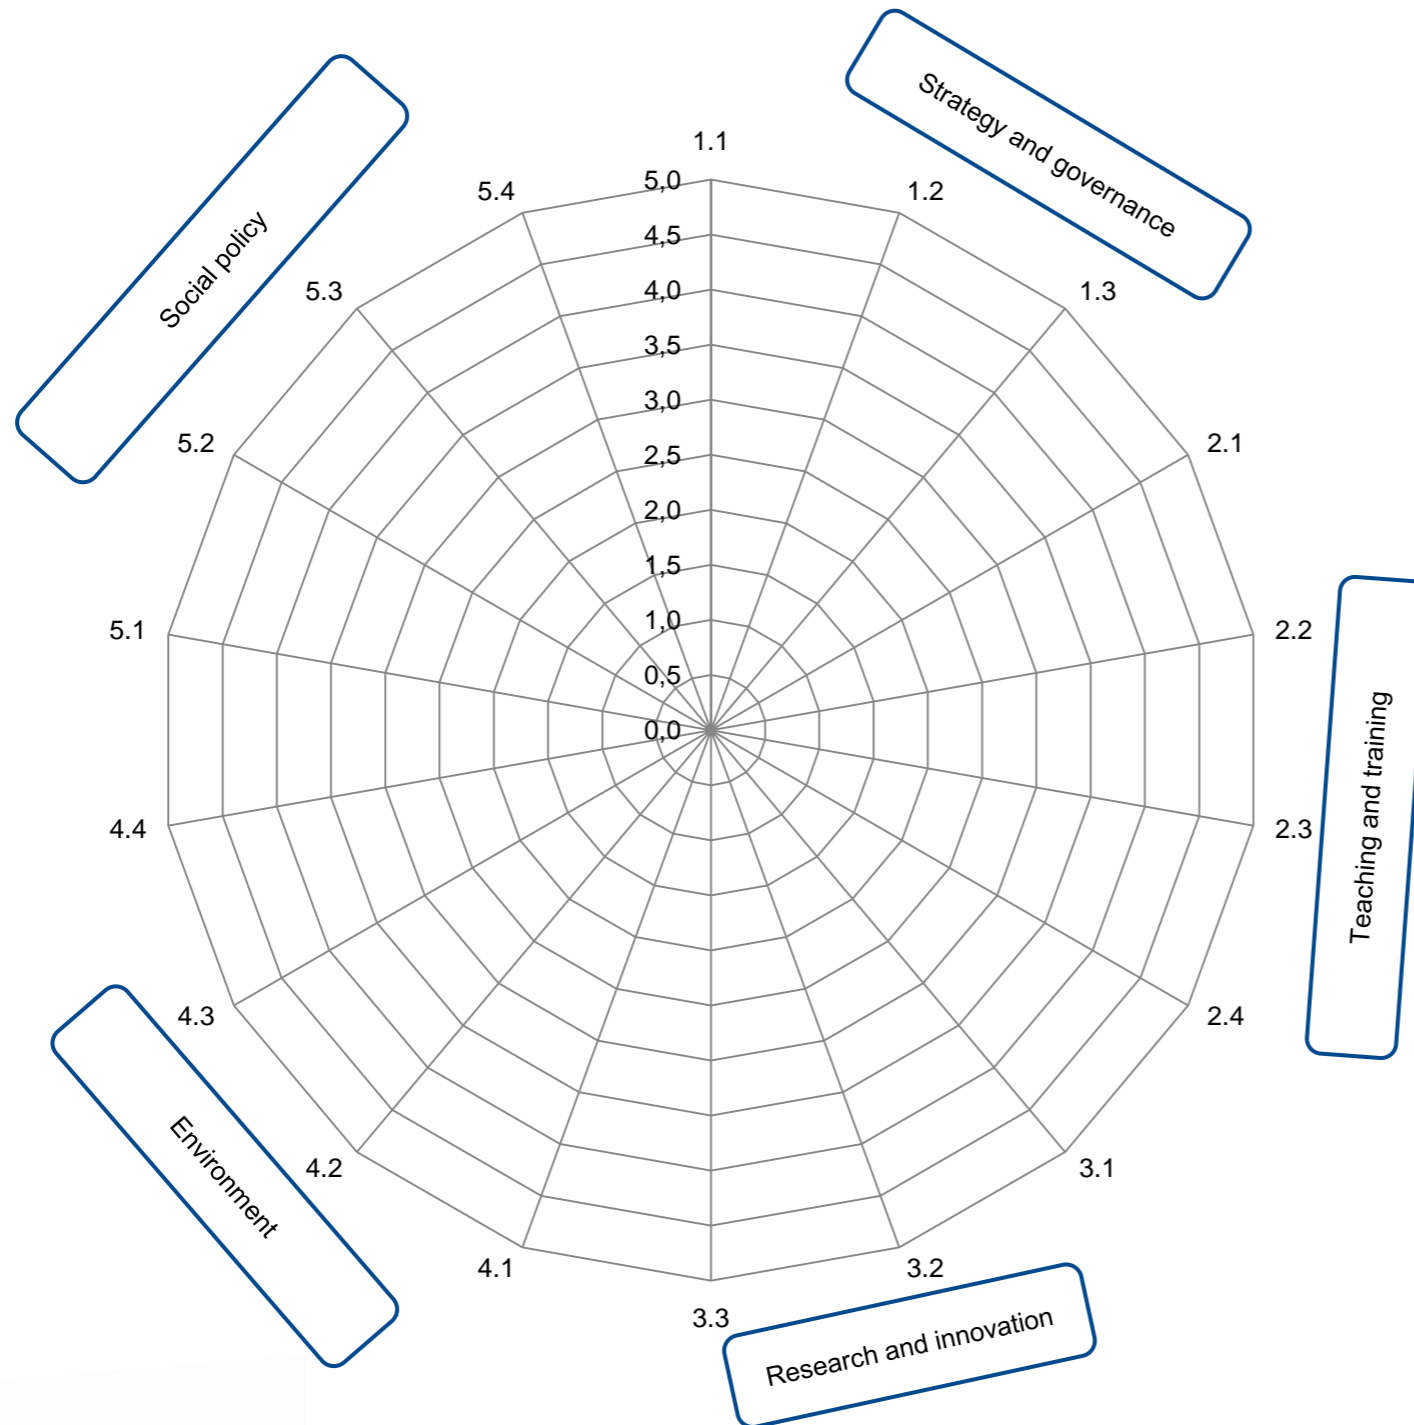

2 Labels

—

- Ecojardin (Eco-garden)
- DDRS (sustainable development and social responsibility)
- Referential containing 5 headings (governance, training, research, environment, social policy and territorial anchoring)
- Based on self-diagnosis, supporting documents and an audit committee

Label DDRS

More about us

- Website: rsudd.parisnanterre.fr
- Twitter: @rsudd_UPN

